BOMB VICTIMS.

Their Funerals Tuesday Attended by Immense Crowds.

Many Expressions of Indignation Against the Authors of the Outrage.

The Dead Were Buried at the Expense of the City of Barcelona.—Several of the Injured Have Since Died.—Over One Hundred Arrests Made.

BARCELONA, June 10.—The funerals of the victims killed by the bomb explosion Sunday at the church of Santa Maria took place Tuesday and were attended by an immense crowd, the members of which gave free vent to expressions of indignation against the authors of the outrage and anarchists in general.

The dead were buried at the expense of the city and the religious ceremonies were attended by the municipal authorities. The day was partially observed as one of mourning, houses and street lamps being draped and the theaters closed.

Several of the persons who were injured have since died and others are moribund.

Altogether about one hundred arrests have been made of men who are suspected of having been concerned in the outrage. Searches made of the residences of the prisoners have resulted in the seizure of papers showing their connection with the anarchists, and a quantity of arms, gunpowder and dynamite.

Another dynamite cartridge was exploded Tuesday outside of a dwelling near San Sebastian, near which city an attempt was made Sunday to blow up the house of a priest. The explosion Tuesday did much damage.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

Dynamite Lets Go Near Lilley, Pa., With Disastrous Results.

JOUNSTOWN, Pa., June 10.—One hundred and eighty cans of dynamite exploded about a mile below Lilley Tuesday afternoon with frightful results. The dead and injured are:

Mike Scawnoske, dead.
Antonio Stibio, Gregorius Seiskie, Gabriel Angonosi, Frank Smith (colored), Peter Jackson (colored), Samuel Walters, fatally injured. They were at work on the Pennsylvania railroad and were getting ready to make a blast when a premature explosion followed, blowing up 180 cans of dynamite and burying the seven men beneath a mass of sand and rock. The steam shovel which stood on the track was hurled 20 feet away.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 10.—The little town of Wyeth City, in Marshall county, some 30 miles west of Gadsden, with a population of about three hundred souls, was completely wrecked Tuesday morning by a cyclone. Fifteen houses were destroyed. Fifteen persons wounded, six fatally. Mrs. Pickett and a man named Bundy were badly hurt and will die. Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Brown and several children will probably die. Several persons are missing and it is probable that they will be found dead. Ed. Long and an unknown woman were killed by lightning.

In Pursuit of Laurada.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 10.—The alleged filibustering steamer Laurada, from New York, arrived at Port Antonio on Saturday last. A Spanish warship was in pursuit of her, but of course did not enter the port in her effort to capture the Laurada. The warship is still off the port waiting for the Laurada to leave. It is believed that the latter landed a large quantity of munitions of war in Cuba.

IN ST. LOUIS

Mark Hanna and the McKinley Boom Arrive.

It Is Claimed the Ohio Man Will Have 681 on First Ballot.

The Contested Delegations Are Not Considered.—On the Trip Westward Calls Were Made for Foraker at Several Stopping Places.—The Fan Begins.

ST. LOUIS, June 10.—The McKinley boom has come to town. It arrived Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock, when the Big Four train from Cleveland bearing Mark Hanna got in. Mr. Hanna occupied the private car of General Superintendent Miller of the Pan Handle system.

On the cars as guests of Mr. Hanna were Hon. Redfield Proctor, of Vermont; Hon. William M. Hahn, Col. Myron T. Herrick, Gen. Osborne, of Boston; Col. Syl. Everett, of Cleveland; Col. C. W. Haskell, of Cleveland; John H. Bothwell, of Sedalia, Mo., one of the delegates-at-large, and Oscar Myer, of Portland, Ore., holding the proxy of the national committeeman, Sweeney of that state. Word had been passed along the wires that the distinguished party was aboard the train and at many of the stations crowds of enthusiasts gathered and cheered and called for "Foraker," who, it was imagined was one of the party.

By common consent the subject of politics was tabooed, and the gentlemen of the party devoted themselves exclusively to whist and social discourse. A pamphlet giving a list of delegates to the national convention was given out on the train. It showed the instruction or preference of each, and the total McKinley strength was shown to be by states as follows:

State	Instructions	Preferred
Alabama	10	12
Alaska	2	2
Arizona	6	6
Arkansas	16	16
California	18	18
Colorado	5	5
Connecticut	9	9
Delaware	6	6
Florida	8	8
Georgia	25	25
Illinois	24	24
Indiana	10	11
Kansas	20	20
Kentucky	10	10
Louisiana	19	4
Maine	4	10
Maryland	4	10
Michigan	28	28
Minnesota	14	14
Mississippi	18	18
Missouri	34	34
Montana	6	6
Nebraska	16	16
Nevada	2	2
New Jersey	2	18
New Mexico	5	5
New York	21	21
North Carolina	18	4
North Dakota	6	6
Ohio	46	4
Oklahoma	4	4
Oregon	8	8
Pennsylvania	14	14
South Carolina	10	8
South Dakota	8	8
Tennessee	22	2
Texas	12	18
Utah	3	3
Vermont	8	8
Virginia	16	8
Washington	8	8
West Virginia	8	4
Wisconsin	24	24
Wyoming	6	6

This, it will be observed, gives McKinley a total of 681 votes on the first ballot, not taking into account the contested delegations. No support is claimed for him in the District of Columbia, Idaho, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island. There are 180 contestants, of whom 53 are for McKinley, two for Bradley, seventeen for Quay, twenty-one for Morton, sixty-nine for Reed and eighteen for Allison. The vote for the other candidates is computed thus: Cameron, four; Reed, fifty-nine; Allison, twenty-one; Teller, six; Cullom, three; Bradley, ten; Morton, fifty-two; Quay, fifty.

Mark Hanna is already taking a hand in the financial fight and has set on foot a strong movement for a compromise. Wednesday afternoon he sent for a number of the southern delegates who are known to be friendly to McKinley and urged them not to push their demands for a gold plank. He fears a big defection in the west and the whole power of the Ohio organization will be used from this time on to prevent the absolute overriding of the free coinage westerners.

THE WALLING TRIAL.

Southern Railway Conductor Testifies That the Man With Pearl Heran in the Central Depot Was Not Walling.

NEWPORT, Ky., June 10.—Col. Washington is very ill, and it is doubtful if he will be able to again appear on behalf of his client, Col. Crawford, who is charged with the murder of the man with the pearl.

Evidence was introduced Wednesday endeavoring to overthrow Coachman Jackson's story.

Conductor Ben McGraw, of the Queen & Crescent, said that he was in the Grand Central station on the Friday afternoon of the murder. Watchman Kinney, of the station, pointed out a young man and young woman who were in the lower waiting-room. The girl seemed to be in distress. McGraw swore that to the best of his knowledge the man with the girl was not Alonzo Walling.

Mrs. Annie Dyer Hanged.

LONDON, June 10.—Mrs. Annie Dyer, the Reading baby farmer, who presumably had murdered scores of infants entrusted to her care, was hanged in Newgate prison at nine o'clock Wednesday morning.

KENTUCKY DISTILLERS.

They Meet in Louisville to Consider Means to Relieve the Depressed Condition of the Trade.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 10.—The distillers of Kentucky are in session at the Galt house Wednesday to consider means to relieve the depressed condition of the whisky market by suspending or limiting production for a given time. There are about forty distillers in attendance. The committee of Pennsylvania distillers expected had not arrived at noon. As soon as the meeting was called to order a resolution was offered to be signed by the distillers of the state providing for a total suspension from July, 1896, to January, 1898, provided that the agreement should be signed by 85 per cent. of the registered capacity of the state.

It was the general sentiment that overproduction was the cause of the present condition of the market. The session will probably last two days and it will result in the appointment of a committee to visit all the distillers of the state and induce them to sign such an agreement as is set forth in the above resolution. It is also thought that production will also be limited after the time of suspension expires. A committee was appointed to draw up an agreement in conformity with the resolution to suspend production.

MAY BOLT.

The Silver Republicans Will Make a Hard Fight in the Convention.

ST. LOUIS, June 10.—The names talked of Wednesday morning for temporary chairman of the republican national convention were C. W. Fairbanks, of Indiana; ex-Gov. Merriam, of Minnesota; Geo. S. Knight, of California, and Redfield Proctor, of Vermont. As to the platform, it is conceded that there will be a fight.

The probable programme of the silver men is this: Three members of the platform committee will offer an unlimited silver-coinage plank, and if rejected by that committee, when the committee makes its report to the convention Senator Teller will be the one that will probably offer a plank in the open convention, a substitute for the plank reported by the committee in the shape of one favoring the unlimited coinage of silver. The silverites will then insist on discussing the substitute resolution on the floor of the convention. They will insist on a roll call on the substitute, and if defeated, they will then walk out of the convention. Mark Hanna arrived on his special train at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning.

HIS STAND.

Speaker Reed Will Not Accept a Vice-Presidential Nomination.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The congressional delegation will go to St. Louis carrying additional assurances that Speaker Thomas B. Reed will not accept a vice-presidential nomination. The speaker again Wednesday morning told his intimate friends that he would not accept the nomination and desires that no attempt be made to force it upon him.

There was a general exodus of congressmen Wednesday evening. A large percentage of the republicans are anxious to attend the republican convention at St. Louis. Many of them are delegates, while others wish to attend as spectators.

Have Given Up Hope.

BALTIMORE, June 10.—The families of the crew of the tug Mascot, which left here November 27, with arms and ammunition for the Cuban insurgents, have given up hope of ever seeing the men again. The Mascot was a large and staunch sea-going tug, destined, it was stated, for duty along the coast of Cuba, in the landing of supplies from vessels and other work. She passed out from Cape Henry November 29. Within a few days one of the most terrific gales that has occurred in recent years, swept the ocean, and the tug is supposed to have foundered. Not a word has been heard of the crew from the day she steamed out of the capes.

Pardon for Capt. Wiborg's Pardon.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The petition for the pardon of Capt. J. H. S. The petition was indorsed by nearly all the members of the senate and house irrespective of party, and by newspaper men and ship owners along the Atlantic coast. The latter speak very highly of Capt. Wiborg's character.

Take the Convention Elsewhere.

COLUMBUS, O., June 10.—Considerable comment was created here Tuesday among state officials over the report that the hotel people and citizens of St. Louis were discriminating against the colored delegates to the national convention.
